HONORED MEMBERS OF ASSOCIATION

LOUIS W. & MARGARET HAWES

Honored Association Members

Louis W. & Margaret Hawes of Owensboro, Kentucky are longtime members of our association. What many may not know is that for years they have taken care of our Hawes Family Cemetery, keeping it mowed, trimmed and looking lovely. It is near their home and it has always been obvious that they took pride in keeping everything there in good condition.

Louis's health is not as good as it once was and he and Margaret can no longer do that work. Their absence has caused many to appreciate even more all their years of hard work, which was not acknowledged often enough.

Lindy & Abbie Mercer arranged to give special recognition to them by adding them as honored members of our Hawes family association. Their names will appear each quarter as honored members, even though they still maintain their regular membership. It is a special way to thank them for all they have done for our Hawes family.

Thank you Louis & Margaret.

Do you want to honor a member with special recognition? The cost is the same as a memorial membership.

Newest Memorial Members

Albert Bludworth "Curly" Hawes (1898-1957) and Martha Avis Cunningham Hawes (1907-1976) are the two newest memorial members of our association. They married on March 1, 1924, in Port Lavaca, Calhoun County, Texas.

"Curly" Hawes was the youngest son of William Isaac & Alice Ann Bludworth Hawes; the grandson of Hugh Walker Hawes; and the great-grandson of Richard & Clary Walker Hawes.

The children of Albert Bludworth & Martha Avis Cunningham Hawes are the late Avis June Reynolds, and our members Laverne Hawes Young and Albert Ray Hawes.

Ray arranged for the memorial membership of his parents.

Purpose of The Hawes Family Association:

To continue to collect and preserve family histories of Hawes people and allied families; to share our knowledge of family histories and to strengthen extended family ties.

OUR LOVED ONES, GONE AHEAD TO A BETTER PLACE, TO WAIT FOR US

We have learned of the death of two of our family members, although obituaries and complete information were not available in time for this newsletter. When the information is available, it will be included in a future issue.

Lillian Hawes Meeks – May 7, 2005

Wife of Bernard Meeks of Arlington, Virginia and sister of our members William E. Hawes of Maryland, Martha Hawes Blythe of Florida, Dorothy Hawes Newkirk, and the late Helen Hawes Hudgins and James Edwin "Bud" Hawes.

Edna Cowgill Hawes – May 22, 2005

Widow of James Edwin "Bud" Hawes and sister-in-law of our members; Bernard Meeks, William E. Hawes, Martha Hawes Blythe and the late Helen Hawes Hudgins.

KENTUCKY HAWES-THOMPSON REUNION ON JUNE 5th

Susan & Jim Foster hosted the reunion this year, at their lovely home in Maceo. It was one of the nicest Kentucky reunions that I have had the privilege to attend; and the air-conditioning made it even better. The food was excellent and attendance was much improved over last year.

Next year I plan to write down the names of everyone attending and report that information to you. I regret that I didn't do that this year. It was wonderful to meet family members for the first time and naturally just as great to visit with those I have met in the past.

Pat Hawes of Maryland was there with his daughter Donna Hodsdon & granddaughter of Paris, Kentucky, and his sister Claudette Hennessy of New York. Cecil Lee and his wife of Blue Ridge, Georgia attended, along with Cecil's mother. Gene & Virginia Haase McCreary came all the way from San Jose, California. The McCrearys have developed a website with wonderful pictures and information about the Hawes Family Cemetery. Learn more about that site on page 4.

Lindy & Abbie Mercer attended; I always enjoy seeing them. They were the first Kentucky Hawes kinfolk that I met, when Aunt Marjorie Hawes and I traveled to Owensboro to do family research in 1999.

My cousin Molly Hawes Rader & were able to have a short, but nice, visit with Marian Sue Hawes & Betty Calkins during lunch. Unfortunately, I didn't get to spend nearly as much time visiting with all of our family members attending as I would have liked. Perhaps next year, we can make arrangements to gather with other family members, at a restaurant in Owensboro the evening before the reunion. This year Molly & I arrived Saturday afternoon and left early on Monday; normally we are able to stay a little longer.

A family meeting about the care of the cemetery was held after our reunion lunch.

I hope to see all of you at the reunion next year.

Descendants of Isaac Hawes, Jr.

Isaac Hawes, Jr. was the youngest of the seven children of Isaac Hawes, Sr. and his wife Mary Coghill, of Essex Co., VA. His oldest brother Samuel's sons, William & Spencer; Isaac, Jr.; and the orphaned sons of his brother John's first marriage; along with all their families, migrated to Lincoln County, Georgia and the Edgefield District of South Carolina, beginning in 1797. Their descendants still live in the South, in Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Texas, and by now in other areas of the U.S.

Helen Hawes Hudgins, when doing research for her book, "The Richard Hawes Family of Kentucky", contacted many Isaac Hawes, Sr. descendants. Some have been members of our Hawes family association for years. Because of that, and to help all of us to know our cousin's families better, pages 5 & 6 have the family tree of Isaac Hawes, Jr., carried to his grandchildren. There was not space to include more generations. Isaac Hawes, Jr. was grandson of Samuel Hawes I & wife Elizabeth Anne Spencer and the first-cousin of Richard Hawes of Kentucky.

Hawes Family Websites

Hawes Family Cemetery, in Yelvington, Kentucky.

www.hawesfamilysite.com

This website was established by Gene and Virginia Haase McCreary of San Jose, California. Their son helped them set up the site. The website is a wonderful place to visit and the pictures & charts are in color. It contains some of our family tree, a surname index, charts, and a cemetery map & registry for our Hawes family cemetery. Eventually, with the help of all of us, they want to add more pictures; both pictures of the individuals buried there and pictures taken at the cemetery.

This website was established by Forrest Hawes, with content furnished by Joe D. Hawes; both live in Texas and are descendants of Hugh Walker Hawes, son of Richard & Clary Walker Hawes of Kentucky.

The site includes an interesting and short history of Matagorda Island and our Hawes family's struggles there. It describes briefly the "taking" of the land by the United States government in 1940. Many pictures are included at the website and most are in color.

Hugh Walker Hawes was born in Caroline County, Virginia; he moved to Kentucky with his family, at the age of twelve. In his mid-fifties and after the death of Juliette, his first wife, he brought his second wife Corilla, and the children of both his marriages to land on the northeast end of Matagorda Island, that he purchased from the, then new, State of Texas. He had traveled there to scout the area as early as 1839 and recognized its potential as a seaport and for grazing stock. That location is in Calhoun, County, but in the past it was a part of both Refugio and Aransas Counties.

Hugh Walker Hawes is buried on Matagorda Island in a family cemetery and he has many Texas descendants. Charles Theodore Hawes, his eldest son, returned to Kentucky where he married, lived in Hawesville and had many children. Anna Hawes Greaves, one of the descendants of Charles Theodore was a co-founder of our Hawes Family Association.

Joe D. Hawes is the great-grandson and Forrest is the great-great-grandson of Hugh Walker Hawes. Joe lives in Port O'Connor, Texas, spending most of his time at his ranch in Tivoli, Texas.

Hawes DNA Study

www.familytreedna.com/public/hawesroots

The website for the Hawes DNA study. This study is open to all Hawes, of any line or spelling. It was begun in an attempt to find the English ancestors of Samuel Hawes of Caroline County, Virginia. Group administrator for this project is Joanne Hawes Stoe.

Dear Family,

Margaret and James Jones of Georgia became millionaires in January, thanks to a winning Georgia Lottery ticket worth $130 million, or the $77.7 million lump sum they chose. The poor dears are left with only $48 million after taxes. They were interviewed by Diane Sawyer, on "Good Morning America". Margaret is the daughter of Clarence & Elizabeth Norman of Lincolnton, Lincoln County, Georgia. The Norman family there connects by marriage to the Hawes descendants of Isaac Hawes, Sr.. A Norman family reunion is held in Lincolnton every other year, in early August; they met this month. Our best wishes to Margaret & James Jones and our thanks to Hawes Family Association member Donna Simcox, of Ivey, Georgia, for sending the newspaper clipping about their exciting win.

The past three months, since our last newsletter, have been busy ones for me. Molly Hawes Rader, my first-cousin, traveled to the Kentucky Hawes-Thompson reunion with me and, on page 3, I've written a little about that very nice experience. Along the way, we stopped in Nashville, Tennessee and went to a Grand Ole Opry performance for the first time. The weather was nice for our trip. We've made two trips to Bossier City, LA in the past five weeks; the house there is sold. Now I will be free to make plans for my last Virginia research trip and to visit my cousins in that area, plus visit my nephew William Stricker and his family in Stafford, Virginia. Since school starts for Molly next week and she is usually my co-pilot, I doubt that I will make it to Virginia before next summer, unless I fly. I am making plans for late September or early October to drive solo to Scottsdale, Arizona to visit my sister Joy Bunch, her daughter Brenda and her grandsons. And, I am moving downstairs later this month, in the same apartment complex where I have lived for the past year. My mailing address will remain the same, but my email address may change. I will keep you posted and send messages to those of you for whom I have email addresses, if it does change.

This is the first quarter that we have not added at least one new association member, since I began writing the newsletter. Two Hawes cousins, one living in Longview, Texas and the other in Atlanta, Georgia, expressed an interest in becoming members, but at this writing they have not joined. We always appreciate adding new members.

I am making a donation to both our association and the Hawes DNA study, from my house sale funds. Your donations are also welcome.

Sincerely,
