ISSUE NUMBER 51

October 2012

Purpose

The Purpose of the Association is to continue to collect and preserve family histories of Hawes people and allied families; to share our knowledge of family histories and to strengthen extended family ties. The association was established by Helen Hawes Hudgins and Anna Hawes Greaves in 1989, to include all the descendants of Samuel Hawes of Colonial Virginia. Samuel Hawes I was born circa 1675, and died circa 1769 in Caroline County, Virginia. All family members descend from one of Samuel Hawes's two sons; Isaac Hawes, Sr. or Samuel Hawes II.

April 14, 2012 Reunion

A very successful and pleasant reunion was held in Waco, TX, hosted by descendants of the William Franklin line, and preponderantly attended by the Hugh Walker line, although there were descendants from all branches of the Hawes family. There were tornadoes spotting the Midwest, but they spared Waco; the Homewood Suites Hotel was very helpful and welcoming; a very enjoyable and educational day was had by all attendees.

April XX, 2013 Reunion

It was decided at the 2012 reunion to hold the 2013 reunion in Port O'Connor, TX as many of the Hugh Walker line live in that area and it is a beautiful and interesting part of the state. Teddy Hawes will head up the committee to plan and host the event. Mark your calendars, more information will be found on the website: hawesfamilyassociation.com as details are finalized. Quoting from the website, "Welcome to majestic Port O'Connor, Texas. The best kept secret on the Gulf Coast. A perfect balance of luxury, relaxation, and adventure can be found in this quaint fishing community known as POC. A fantastic getaway" See you there!

Letter to Edwin Hawes from Hugh Walker

This letter was written by Hugh Walker Hawes (1798-1883), son of Richard & Clary Walker Hawes, to his brother Edwin Hawes of Kentucky, in 1856. A copy of the original letter was given to me by Texas historian, author, and friend of our Hawes family, Bill Winsor. The town of Saluria was located on Matagorda Island, in Texas. The fact that the United States now finds itself with a shortage of seaports magnifies how far Hugh Walker Hawes was ahead of his time. I am sharing this treasured letter written by my great-great grandfather in 1856.

Dear Edwin:

I arrived here on Mexico [one of his steamboats] and shall return to Saluria by same steamer leaving at 8 O' Clock tomorrow, Sunday.

I have never been so exalted and confident of success as I have become since my arrival here and if my dreams are realized, a success of which I had not dreamed til yesterday.

I cannot go into details lest you consider me ridiculous in case of failure, and since my residence at Saluria there have been so many flattering indications all of which have vanished, that I am mistrustful of things which I feel. As realized.

I left home not expecting to come farther than Galveston to see Walker [Hugh Walker Hawes, Jr.] who is at the Catholic School there and Col. Field the State Superintendent and Director of Works to be done in the Guadalupe River and our Bay to the extent of \$30,000. Which is granted on condition that individuals raise $\frac{1}{5}$ the amount which has been done. He promised to return with me and make the reconnaissance at once, which he had not intended doing til Jany [January], and it is expected that the lettings of contracts will take place in Jany, and the work easily commenced. I shall urge the cutting out the bar into our Bayou which will give us a perfect harbor. In addition the Colorado River entering our Bay will be entitled to \$50,000. One fifth of which sum has been raised by the inhabitants making upwards of \$60,000 on the River.

I got a letter from Cousin Theodore Tuesday saying that he and some friends intended to come to Texas. I wrote to him to come directly to Saluria and this is written to urge you to come with him as I should be always pleased to see you but above all in prosperity. Bring Theodore & family with you & if you cannot come urge them to do so. I [hope] all will come.

My love to all.

Your Afftn Brother,
Hugh Walker Hawes
