Claudia L Hawes

New York – July 17, 2002

Mrs. Claudia Lenore Butterfield Hawes, 93, and widow of Walter Herman Hawes died peacefully, in her sleep. She is survived by two children, Mrs. Claudette Hennesey and Walter Herman "Pat" Hawes, Jr., of Maryland, and grandchildren.

I regret that I have been unable to obtain her obituary, at this time. But Helen Hawes Hudgins recently wrote to me, praising her cousin's wife. She spoke of Claudia's beauty, kindness, and intelligence, recalling her when she was a young wife and mother, pushing her son, Pat, in his baby buggy.

Buckner – Washington – Burke Family Cemetery

The book, "Cemeteries of Caroline County, Virginia", Volume 2, Private Cemeteries, compiled by Herbert Ridgeway Collins, Green Falls, Caroline County, Virginia, lists the persons buried there and the inscriptions on the markers. Most of the people buried there are related directly to our Hawes family.

This is the cemetery on the Braynefield Plantation property visited by our little Hawes group; on the day we visited Woodpecker Farm, in June.

You may find this book in your local public library.

HAWES – COGHILL

A few years ago, one of the Coghill descendants sent me a copy of the book, "The Family of Coghill 1377-1879. With Some Sketches of Their Maternal Ancestors, The Slingsbys, of Scriven Hall 1135-1879 by James Henry Coghill". On page 105, of that book, the spouse of our Elizabeth Hawes (daughter of the first Samuel Hawes) was named by an elderly Coghill descendant. He said that if his memory served him correctly, he was Frederick Coghill, Jr.. The spouse of Elizabeth Hawes was named by Elizabeth Hawes Ryland in "Hawes of Caroline County, Virginia" as Thomas Coghill. She stated that their descendants still reside in Caroline County. Thomas Coghill and Frederick Coghill, Jr. were brothers and both of them are named in the will of Frederick Coghill, Sr., their father. I do not know which of the brothers were married to our Elizabeth Hawes, but I do not have enough evidence at this time to change the information from Ms. Ryland's book.

Last year R.L. Samuell sent me a copy of the transcript of the will of Frederick Coghill, Sr. and the division of his estate appearing on pages 3 & 4, of this newsletter. One of the five children / beneficiaries named was Mary Haws, spouse of Isaac Haws. Mr. Samuell believed that two of the children of Samuel & Elizabeth Anne Spencer Hawes married into this Coghill family.

Molly's & my visit to the Tappahannock, Essex County, Virginia courthouse this year allowed us to view the original county will record and verify the transcript. The information is accurate. The husband of Mary Coghill was Isaac Hawes, in my opinion Isaac Hawes, Sr., the oldest child of Samuel Hawes I. I've read and reread Ms. Ryland's information and I do not believe that there is a conflict.

He was the youngest son of Richard & Clary Walker Hawes. His oldest son, Wm. Franklin, Jr. married Anne McAdams on January 9, 1860, so was not a part of this household at the time of the census.

The President's Corner

Reunions

This summer we harvested a bumper crop of reunions at our house. The first was not the Hawes family reunion, but a reunion of friends from Okinawa, Japan! In May, our family hosted a get-together with friends who were in Okinawa with us from 1973-1975. One couple came from New Zealand, another from Kansas City and another from Jacksonville, Florida. Others were invited, but could not attend. Even though the reunion was small, we all enjoyed renewing old friendships and watching slides and movies taken when we were younger and thinner! Our babies are now adults with babies of their own and most of us have lost our parents over the course of the past 25 years. The thing we all commented on in unison was the fact that despite the years between visits we all enjoyed each other's company just as much as we did years ago. This is the common bond so many of us have who have lived overseas – either with the military or other overseas groups. The first of June, I flew to Dallas, Texas for another reunion. I met a friend at the airport. From there we were picked up by another friend's son – I can still see he and our son playing with their Star Wars characters (the original ones) in the backyard in Ras Tanura, Saudi Arabia. The three of us drove to Houston to join forces with three other friends from Saudi Arabia and we enjoyed a "YaYa" weekend. Again, for all of us, it was as though our lives hadn't been separated by several years of being apart. We just picked up where we left off and went from there! In June, we enjoyed a lovely day at Yellow Creek Park where Hawes family relatives came laden with delicious homemade dishes and fresh garden vegetables. It always amazes me how many people travel for hundreds of miles to renew old friendships and meet new friends and relatives! I had a wonderful surprise this year at the reunion as I made a connection with two Hawes cousins who are also cousins on my father's side of the family – the Wilhoytes. The Wilhoyte farm and the Ben Hawes family farm were adjacent at the turn of the century. But the connection was through the Perkins line! Jay Mackey and Pat Hawes are both related to the Hawes' through the Perkins line – also a neighbor of the Wilhoytes. My great-grandmother was Olivia Perkins Wilhoyte – a sister to Jay and Pat's great-grandfather! What a small world it was at the turn of the century! And, it keeps shrinking! Hope you will be able to come next year to the reunion! We took up a collection to cover the cost of hams, cutlery and postage and there is enough to cover postage for the next reunion plus a little extra! This will come in handy if the Daviess County Parks department decides to start charging for rentals at Yellow Creek next year. Have a great fall..... Enjoy your families during the holiday season.

.....Fondly Yours, Cousin Susan Wilhoyte Foster

Dear Family & Friends,

Thank you for your notes and letters. I have been remiss in my correspondence, just having returned from Bossier City, Louisiana and assisting a friend after his surgery. Forgive me.

Please check page one of the newsletter to determine when your association dues are due. If it is noted N/A then you do not owe anything. If it is noted Paid then you are paid through July of next year. If your records disagree with my records, please let me know. If you want to pay at a different time, that is fine, it is not necessary to advise me, and I will continue to send your newsletter. Also, if you paid for the past year a little later than normal, I may show that you owe again. When you pay is not of critical importance, but many of you have asked me when your dues are due.

Currently, two public libraries are on our mailing list: Daviess County Public Library in Owensboro, Kentucky and Lincoln County Public Library in Lincolnton, Georgia. If your local public library has a large genealogical section, where Hawes descendants may do research, I will be happy to contact them to see if they would like to receive a complimentary copy of the newsletter. Let me know the name of the library and their telephone number.

This issue of the newsletter begins my third year. Thank you for letting me continue. It is a project that I enjoy very much.

I'm still working on my Hawes family history book. Each year that passes without its completion is always a shock to me. Maybe 2003 will be the year it is finally completed and published. Don't give up!

Sincerely,
