The President's Corner by Susan Foster

Recently I received a classified for the position of "Mother". I hope you will enjoy it as much as I did:

Job Description:

Long term, team players needed for challenging permanent work in an often chaotic environment. Candidates must possess excellent communication and organizational skills and be willing to work variable hours, which will include evenings and weekends and frequent 24 hour shifts on call. Some overnight travel required including trips to primitive camping sites on rainy weekends and endless sports tournaments in far away cities. Travel expenses not reimbursed.

Responsibilities:

The rest of your life. Must be willing to bite tongue repeatedly. Must possess physical stamina of a pack mule. Must be willing to face stimulating technical challenges such as small gadget repair, mysteriously sluggish toilets and stuck zippers. Must screen phone calls, maintain calendars and coordinate production of multiple homework projects. Must have ability to plan and organize social gatherings for clients of all ages and mental outlooks. Must assume final, complete accountability for the quality of the end product.

Possibility for Advancement & Promotion:

Virtually none. Your job is to remain the same position for years, without complaining, constantly retraining and updating your skills so that those in your charge can ultimately surpass you.

Previous Experience:

None required unfortunately. On-the-job training offered on a continually exhausting basis.

Wages & Compensation:

Get this! You pay them! Offering frequent raises and bonuses! A balloon payment is due when they turn 18 because of the assumption that college will help them become financially independent. When you die, you give them whatever is left! The oddest thing about this reverse-salary scheme is that you actually enjoy it and this wish you could only do more!!

Benefits:

While not health or dental insurance, no pension, no tuition reimbursement, no paid holidays and no stock options are offered; this job supplies limitless opportunities for personal growth and free hugs for life if you play your cards right.

Have a great spring!

Cousin Susan Elizabeth Foster

HAWES FAMILY REUNION – KENTUCKY REMINDER

The Hawes family reunion will be held at Yellow Creek Park, near Owensboro, same shelter as before, on Sunday, June 22, 2003. We plan to eat at 1:00 p.m., to allow churchgoers time to get home and to the reunion. We will furnish the meat (Kentuckian hams – the best), utensils, ice, iced tea, and lemonade. If you live in the Owensboro area and can help out this year, please call Susan Foster (264-4434).

Plan to bring enough food to feed your own family, less the meat, or if you are from out of town, pick up some soft drinks or something else that is non-perishable from the grocery. Please plan to contribute $10.00 this year. Looking forward to seeing everyone! Susan Foster – maceogirl@aol.com

OUR LOVED ONE, GONE AHEAD TO A BETTER PLACE, TO WAIT FOR US

Dayton, Texas - Travis Lloyd Hawes, the twelve year old son of David Alan & Stephanie Hawes, died here on Thursday, March 13, 2003, in a tragic accident. His parents and sister, Jamie, survive Travis. He was born December 28, 1990. Lloyd & Alma Hawes, of Victoria, Texas, are Travis's grandparents; his great-grandmother Mary Nell Hawes resides in Victoria. Preceding him in death were his great-grandparents, Albert & Muriel Drouin and Lloyd Clark "Buck" Hawes. Travis was a descendant of Hugh Walker Hawes.

Hugh Walker Hawes
1798-1883

My great-great grandfather's first marriage took place in New Orleans, Louisiana in 1829. I am descended from his second marriage to Corilla Calhoun of Kentucky, but I have gathered as much information as I could about his first family.

Recently I discovered a book with information about his first family that I had not seen before, "Marriages and Family Relationships 1830-1840", transcribed from French language public records of various New Orleans registrars into an index, by Charles R. Maduell, Jr., in 1969. Bold print will identify any new information from his book, from transcribed Book 3, page 117.

The first wife of Hugh Walker Hawes was Marie Martha Juliette Justine DeRion. Her mother Aimee was identified as Jeanne Justine Desbreu (probably Aimee Jeanne Justine Desbreu).

Letter from Brother to Sister - 1943

The following letter was written to me, from my younger brother, Lloyd Hawes, in the spring of 1943. Our grandpa, Lloyd William Hawes, the best grandfather anyone could have had, put the words to paper, since Lloyd was only four years old at the time and I was six. We had a new baby sister, Carol Jean, and I had the whooping cough. Although we usually deal here with family history that is much older, this touched my heart when I came across it this week. Grandpa was a rancher and a retired thirty-year Coast Guard man. Lloyd was visiting Granny & Grandpa in Port O'Connor, Texas and I was in Freeport, Texas, at Surfside, where our family lived and our daddy was stationed with the Coast Guard. It was a different time.

My Dearest little curley headed Sister,

I will answer your letter which I received several days ago. I have been helping Grandpa with the cow. I can milk a little. I rode the calf, too. We went down to [Aunt] Evelyn's house tonight. I go down there and eat dinner with them sometimes.

I was all ready to go see you all when we heard you had that cough. I was glad to see David John [one year old son of Joe D. & Marjorie Hawes & my first cousin], he sure is cute. How is my little sister Carol Jean? I want to see her too. I wish you all could see me, I am a big boy now. I say yes sir and no sir all the time.

Sister, as soon as school is out you all must come down here and stay a long time. We look every day for Marjorie and David [Uncle Joe was away serving his country.]

I am sleepy now so will have to go to bed.

From your little Brother,
Lloyd

[A drawing was in the corner of the page, of Lloyd riding a horse.]

Dr. Edwin Gallatin Coleman, born February 20, 1848, was the son of Hawes Harris Coleman, the son of Ann Walker Hawes, the oldest child and daughter of Richard & Clary Walker Hawes

Dr. Coleman married Mamie Boodie in about 1877 and they had four children; Earnest Godfrey Coleman b. May 7, 1878, Edith Coleman b. January 26, 1880, Frederick Hughes Coleman b. December 23, 1881, and Mary Gildersleeve Coleman b. March 16, 1884.

Do you know more about Edwin, his wife Mamie Boodie, or their children? I would appreciate additional information. Edwin died on June 5, 1885.

SIMON BOLIVAR BUCKNER

General of the Confederacy & Governor of Kentucky

Simon Bolivar Buckner was born on April 1, 1823, the third child of Aylett Hartswell & Elizabeth Ann Morehead Buckner in Hart County, Kentucky, near Mumfordsville. He was the great-great-great grandson of William & Anne Tayloe Aylett and John & Debora Ferrers Buckner, all of Virginia. There are many Hawes marriages in both lines.

Buckner graduated from West Point in 1844, where he taught for two years after graduation, then saw action in the Mexican American War. He entered the Confederate Army as a brigadier general, in September 1861. In February 1862, after his two senior officers escaped to safety, he surrendered Fort Donelson, Kentucky to General Grant. He was exchanged later in 1862 and commanded a wing of Bragg's army at Chickamauga.

After the War Between the States he was an editor of a Louisville, Kentucky newspaper and served as Democratic governor of Kentucky from 1887 to 1892. He was a candidate for Vice President of the United States in 1896.

Simon Bolivar Buckner attended schools in Kentucky; he received an appointment to West Point and for the first time in his life headed east, traveling by stagecoach and boat. He was impressed by the growth of the towns and cities and found their hustle and bustle exciting. He was physically strong and excelled in all sports, especially gymnastics. When Buckner wanted to go to New York City, a distance of fifty miles, he just walked over and back. He usually stopped at Tarrytown, about mid-way, and the people there became accustomed to his walks and chats, even watching for him to appear on the horizon.

While serving in the Army and on duty near New York, Buckner met Mary Kingsbury and they married at Old Lyme, Connecticut, on May 2, 1850. She was of a prominent and wealthy family. They had an son; he died while still an infant, during the Mexican War. There was difficulty in getting Mary a pass to take their son to his place of burial, past enemy lines.

In 1855 Simon resigned from the Army. He and Mary had a daughter, Lily; she was born on March 7, 1858. His Kentucky homeplace that they had returned to, was renamed Glen Lily in their daughter's honor. Buckner served in the Confederacy, as a brigadier general, for the duration of the War Between the States. Mary Kingsbury Buckner died in 1874.

Buckner, on June 10, 1885, at age 62, surprised everyone except the members of his household, when he married Miss Delia Claiborne, of Virginia. She was more than thirty years his junior and the granddaughter of Maria Dandridge Bassett, the sister of Martha (Mrs. George ) Washington, and she was closely related to Robert E. Lee. Their son, Simon Bolivar Buckner, Jr. was born at Glen Lily on July 18, 1886.

Simon Bolivar Buckner, Sr. was elected governor of Kentucky in 1887 and served through 1891. After his term as governor, he, Delia, and their son traveled extensively. In 1900 they added their nephew to their small group and went to Europe for a tour of the Continent. In their travels they visited many distinguished and influential families in America. Among those visits was a visit in the White House, with President Theodore Roosevelt. While a guest, Buckner asked the President if he would consider giving his son an appointment to West Point. President Roosevelt did so, at that moment.

Buckner died on January 8, 1914, at age ninety-one, only being sick for two days before his death.

Martin Van Buren Hawes

Martin was born in 1844 and was a musician & private in Georgia's Company E, 31 Infantry, from May 1, 1862. He was captured at Fredericksburg, Va. December 18, 1862. Exchanged. Appointed Color-Bearer. Captured in South Mountain, Maryland July 4, 1863. Paroled in February 1865 and exchanged at James River, Virginia in March 1865. He returned home to Georgia after the Civil War and then left to look for work as a music teacher. No further record has been found of him. Letters & money he sent to his family, so that they might join him, were destroyed by a person who intercepted them, it was learned years later. He was a descendant of Isaac Hawes, Sr. and is the ancestor of T.J. Hawes of Gainesville, Florida. Will you look for him when you do research?

Dear Family and Friends,

Many thanks to Joan Pridgen for the gift membership to our Hawes Family Association that she gave Walter Leighton Hawes. We are pleased to have him as a new member.

Your newsletters are arriving late this quarter. My apologies. I will try to do better in July. The reason? I went to Corpus Christi and Victoria, in Texas, for a few weeks to visit my family, and just returned on April 8th. It was great to visit family members, especially my children and grandchildren. I saw my grandson Cody McNeley play his first Little League baseball game for this season. He made a double play and got several excellent hits, including a double. A great performance for a twelve year old or any age.

I am going to miss the Hawes-Thompson reunion in Kentucky this year and also the Norman reunion in Georgia. I hope many of you attend. I'll be thinking of you.

A reminder to you; my email and U.S. Postal Service addresses changed in November and the new information is listed on the left side of this page.

I need your assistance. The past two newsletters were returned that I sent to:

Dr. George Walter Hambrick, Jr.
Barberbrook Farm
3170 Stoney Point Farm
Charlottesville, Virginia 22911

Can anyone provide me with a new address or an update?

Until July. Let me hear from you.

Sincerely,
